

Supplier Self Assessment

Company Information

Overview > a general assessment that provides us with quantitative data points and gives the supplier the opportunity to upload anything they feel is pertinent to their maturity

Supplier target > entrepreneurs, smaller or medium sized organisations that don't need or require the depth of other questionnaires due to their size, market position or industry

Red flag questions > sanctioned individuals, companies or countries and not paying taxes and security fees.